PEACE MOVES IN VANCOUVER STRIKE

Hepburn Says Ontario Loan Is Big Success

People of Province Will Have Subscribed $20,000,000 By This Evening, States Premier

DISTRIBUTION ON WIDEST BASIS
Canadian Press
Toronto, June 19.—Confident Ontario's $20,000,000 loan would be subscribed by to-night, Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn announced to-day applications exceeded the $15,000,000 mark and the figures covered only applications received in the main treasury offices in the Legislative Buildings, outside offices not having reported.

Hepburn said the cabinet at its session to-day would determine whether bonds will be sold after the issue has been subscribed. Declaring many purchasers had offered to take more bonds if necessary, Mr. Hepburn said: "I know right now where I can get firms that will take another $4,000,000 if necessary, but we are so near the top I would like to spread it more among the outside branches."

The decision to sell the bonds through its own savings offices was made by the Ontario government last week, after a $15,000,000 bond issue had been offered and no bids were received from the firms regularly dealing in bond issues.

IN UNITED STATES
New York, June 19.—Offering for sale of an unregistered issue of $20,000,000 in debentures by the Province of Ontario, through an advertisement in a New York and Boston publication, raised the question to-day in New York financial circles whether the action was in violation of the United States Securities Act of 1933.

Bankers and legal authorities here, however, have not yet decided whether the offering of the unregistered issue in a United States publication for public subscription constituted a violation of the Securities Act, but it was learned the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington would withhold comment until officials had studied the advertisement and checked the federal law.

WANT CANADIAN BUYERS
Canadian Press
Toronto, June 19.—An advertisement inserted by the Ontario government in a New York City bond publication respecting the government's new $20,000,000 loan was intended to attract United States investors, but rather to reach Canadian buyers reading the publication, Charles A. Walker, Ontario controller of finance, said to-day.

Preparer Mitchell F. Hepburn said "nothing irregular in so far as we did not sell these bonds as we would have registered in the regular way," he said.

Ottawa Session Nearing Its End

FARMERS' ACT ENDS FOR B.C.

Commons Told Creditors' Measure Inoperative; Bill Soo to Exclude B.C.

Canadian Press
Ottawa, June 19.—Operations of the Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act in British Columbia will be withdrawn because of the opposition of the government of that province, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett announced in the House of Commons to-day. Recently the provincial government sought an injunction to prevent the Dominion Government acting to obtain debt compromises as between farmers and their creditors, when the province was the creditor.

Speaking in the debate on third reading of the bill to create a Dominion trades and industry commission, Mr. Bennett declared only one of the nine provinces had failed to co-operate with the Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act. That province, he said, had sought an injunction against it, challenging its constitutionality, and the act would be made inoperative there.

He did not mention British Columbia by name. It is understood a bill will be introduced which will render the act inoperative in British Columbia after July 1, 1935, but will not interfere with any debt compromise agreements already effected or to be effected in the meantime.

LAWSON LOSES GOLF MATCH

Victoria Golfer Eliminated in Canadian Amateur; Moore, Leonard Win

Amateur, Ontario, June 19.—Ken Lawson, Victoria, was defeated 3 and 2 in the third round of the Canadian amateur golf championship here this afternoon, bowing to Fred Wright, Weston, Mass.

Lawson had trouble on the outgoing nine and was five down at the turn. He fought his way back, starting the home trip, but met elimination when he tried and missed a twenty-five footer on the sixteenth. Wright set a hot pace on the outward trip with a thirty-four, one under par.

Dick Moore, Victoria, eliminated Stan Daley, Hamilton, 6 and 4. Stan Leonard, Vancouver, put on a brilliant exhibition to defeat Joe Thompson, Burlington, 3 and 1. Leonard was out in 34, one under par, and was one up at the turn. He was just as hot coming in and a four on the eighteenth would have given him 66. Thompson had an approximate 70.

Ken Black, Vancouver, defeated Jack Nash, London, 4 and 3 to send three British Columbia players into the fourth round.

SOMERVILLE ADVANCES
C. Ross Somerville, of the London Hunt Club, marched on towards the finals, turning back the veteran Fred Hoblitzel, of Lambton, Toronto, in the afternoon, 3 up.

R. L. Proctor, Edmonton, and Don Kennedy, Winnipeg, fought an all western battle, with Kennedy winning 1 up. Kennedy was two down at the turn, but came back strongly and scored a birdie on the par five seventeenth.

Jack Rolston, formerly of Chicago, carded an approximate 78 to defeat J. G. Adams, Cedar Brook, Toronto, 1 up.

Gordon Taylor, Toronto, defeated Douglas Jones, Hamilton, 6 and 5.

FIRE TOTAL IN B.C. GREATER
The forest fire situation in British Columbia eased somewhat with last week's rains, but the Vancouver forest district, which includes Vancouver Island, still bore the brunt with twenty-four outbreaks out of fifty-one occurring in that area.

The total of fifty-one fires compared with seventy the week previous and brought the aggregate of fires for the season to 326, as compared with 277 at this time last year and only 100 in 1933.

With Last of List of Bills Before House, M.P.'s Say Prorogation May Come Before June Ends

Canadian Press
Ottawa, June 19.—All the legislation of which intimation had been given by the government has now been laid before Parliament, with the introduction yesterday of the housing bill. Barring possible complications arising from the grain board measure, which is before a select committee of the House, and the amendments to the Elections Act initiating the single alternative vote in Saskatchewan, prospects to-day were said to be bright for prorogation of Parliament at the end of next week.

INDICTMENTS FOR WALEYS

Associated Press
Tacoma, Wn., June 19.—Open indictments charging violation of Lindbergh kidnap law, as well as with conspiracy to kidnap young George Weyerhaeuser, timber magnate's son, and with using the United States mails to send a $200,000 extortion note were returned by the federal grand jury shortly after 3 p.m. to-day against three of the kidnapping case principals, H. M. Waley and his wife and W. Mahan, who still is a fugitive.

FIFTY ILL
Indianapolis, June 19.—Fifty men at a federal transient bureau here became ill to-day, apparently from eating tainted food. Two physicians were called to attend them.

"UON" BRAND

Much interest has arisen all across the continent over the branding of a man in Victoria as part of an alleged initiation ceremony into a society known as the "U. O. N." In the above picture the position of the brand is shown, the artist of The Times painting on the body of a member of the editorial staff the mysterious letters "U. O. N."

DIONNES NOT BOUGHT OFF

Minister of Welfare Tells Manager L. Kervin Ontario Will Pay Nothing to Have Quintuplets' Mother's Story For U.S. Papers "Toned Down"
Toronto, June 19.—Correspondence between Leo Kervin, promoter-manager of Mr. and Mrs. Olive Dionne, parents of the quintuplets, and Minister of Welfare David A. Croft, chief guardian of the quintuplets, respecting an autobiography Mrs. Dionne has written for a United States syndicate was made public to-day by Mr. Croft.

Kervin's letter, received by the minister to-day, suggested a "settlement" to "tone down" the biography. Mr. Croft replied in his letter: "The government of Ontario has no intention of buying off Mrs. Dionne, nor of attempting to prevent her managers or herself from publishing whatever 'revelations' you succeed in selling to a United States syndicate."

Other than his reply to Kervin's letter, the minister declined to comment further.

WANTS SPEED
Kervin's letter to Mr. Croft said: "Received your letter of June 13. I can't understand why you did not receive my letter dated June 1, but was not mailed until June 2."

In view of the fact that Mrs. Dionne has sold her autobiography to an American news syndicate, it is imperative that a settlement take place as speedily as possible. This story will bring out details which if a settlement is made to all were to take place would be better modified so as not to further embarrass the government.

"Although the material has already been given, it may be possible to tone it down, if an adjustment were to take place immediately, before it goes to (Turn to Page 2, Col. 1.)

SHARK IN BOAT WOUNDS MAN

Canadian Press
North Wildwood, N.J., June 19.—Manuel Chalar, thirty-one, skipper of a fishing trawler, came to a hospital with a lacerated arm. He said he had been bitten by a fifteen-foot shark that leaped into his boat while he was fishing in an open bay, fifty miles off shore. He fainted. Members of his crew, he said, threw pieces of wood at the shark and it slipped back into the water.

Table Rock At Niagara Blasted
Canadian Press
Niagara Falls, Ont., June 19.—The first of the blasts which will knock Table Rock, famous sightseeing spot, from the edge of Niagara Falls, was fired shortly after noon to-day, loosening shale on top of the hard rock.

20-day blast, a small one, was well July 1 and 4.

"blanketed" with railroad ties laid on top of the rock, and nothing flew into the air. There was no shaking. The series of blasts which will remove the rock are expected to be light ones. There will be another explosion to-morrow morning. The main blasts have been set for July 1 and 4.

Efforts To Overcome Ship Deadlock After Riots In Wharf Area

TIMBER SALES SHOW INCREASE

Provincial timber sales jumped upward in May as compared with last year, according to figures given out to day by Hon. A. Wells Gray, Minister of Lands. Individual sales totaled ninety-two, bringing in gross revenue of $106,477, as compared with $81,671 in May, 1934, and $39,061 in 1933.

DELEGATION SPEEDS EAST

Spokesmen of Relief Strikers at Regina Pass Through Winnipeg

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, June 19.—Eight representatives of 2,000 British Columbia and Alberta relief camp strikers stationed at Regina, sped on to Ottawa to-day after halting only to-day train here. In Ottawa they will present their grievances over camp conditions to the federal government.

The men went eastward alone, unaccompanied by three representatives of Manitoba and Northern Ontario camp strikers who were refused free transportation by the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Yesterday evening Hon. Robert J. Manion, Minister of Railways, who with Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, negotiated with the British Columbia-Alberta strikers, said he had no authority to grant the Manitoba representatives transportation.

GREETED AT STATION
On their arrival here, the Regina emissaries were greeted by between 2,500 and 3,000 local jobless at the station.

In Regina the main body will await developments of the committee's negotiations in Ottawa, while the Winnipeg camp revolutionaries prepare to mobilize for a second "march-on-Ottawa."

DEPARTURE FROM REGINA
Regina, June 19.—Loaded with packbags, eight relief strike leaders left here for Ottawa yesterday evening. Carrying out truce in their drive to Ottawa at the head of 1,600 men, they went to place their six demands on the table of the federal government. They are due to arrive at Ottawa about 4 a.m. Friday.

They climbed aboard a tourist car of Canadian Pacific Railway train No. 2, with the cheers of their men in their ears. The 1,600 strikers, following a short meeting at the stadium which more than 1,000 citizens attended, paraded to the station. A noisy demonstration with a (Turn to Page 2, Col. 1.)

MAN BILLED FOR HIS OWN BURIAL

Associated Press
Denver, Mass., June 19.—Harry E. Stone, a bill to-day from a collection agency for payment of the expenses of his own burial.

The bill, sent to Stone's wife, stated Stone was dead and buried, and the undertaker had not been paid.

The Stones sent a note to the agency saying a visit to their home would prove Harry E. Stone was alive, well and happy.

NEGOTIATES WITH BRITISH

Associated Press
Tientsin, China, June 19.—The Japanese military was reported to-day to have apparently renounced any plans for armed action in China as a result of the Chinese government's capitulation on far-reaching north China demands.

Japanese spokesmen inferred that China, by dismissing Gen. Sung Chieh-yan as governor of Chahar province and ordering the 152nd Chinese division to evacuate the province, had brought issues there "to the stage of amicable settlement."

A correspondent of Reuters, British news agency, reported that even extremists among the Japanese war officers appeared satisfied—for the time being, at least—by the settlement and apparently had foregone any idea of armed activities.

BAIL REFUSED UNION LEADER

Ivan Emery, Longshoremen's President, Remanded Till Thursday

Canadian Press
Vancouver, June 19.—Ivan Emery, president of the Longshoremen and Water Transport Workers of Canada, was refused bail in police court to-day when he appeared on a charge of inciting to riot and was remanded till Thursday for preliminary hearing.

"It becomes a question whether his release might be dangerous to the public peace in view of the present situation," Magistrate Mackenzie Matheson said. "I feel I cannot take the responsibility of allowing this man to go free at the moment."

He added, speaking to Gordon Grant, Emery's counsel, that application for bail could be made to the Supreme Court.

Emery was arrested shortly prior to the outbreak of riots on the Vancouver waterfront.

SPEECH REPORTED
His arrest followed investigation of remarks he was reported to have made on Sunday, when, addressing a mass meeting of longshoremen, he is alleged to have said:

"In the war, many of us faced the guns of the whole German army. Now we are faced with a squad of Mounties with machine guns behind them. I believe there are enough returned labor war veterans willing to listen to the rattle of machine gun fire again."

He was said to have declared that if permission were not granted for the men to march to the docks, "we are going to march anyway. If they turn their guns on us you will know that the face of fascism in Canada has been bared."

NO INQUIRY INTO STRIKE

Bennett Tells Commons Dominion Government Not Investigating at Vancouver

Canadian Press
Ottawa, June 19.—Premier R. B. Bennett told the House of Commons to-day the Dominion did not intend to appoint a board of inquiry into the Vancouver strike which led to riots yesterday.

The Premier was asked by Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Liberal, Vancouver Centre, if a board was contemplated. Mr. Bennett traced the labor difficulties between the Shipping Federation and longshoremen back to February and the strike late in April. He said the Shipping Federation had applied for a board of conciliation on May 25, but a few days later had withdrawn the application.

Mayor G. G. McCrear of Vancouver to-day reported the riot situation was under control. Mr. Bennett said, and because of this, the Dominion did not propose to intervene with a board of inquiry.

PLANE CARRIES AMMUNITION
Canadian Press
Vancouver, June 19.—Vancouver police said to-day 1,500 rounds of ammunition, for "Tommy" sub-machine guns, for which they had no ammunition, had been brought here by airplane from San Francisco. They refused to comment further, but it was believed the ammunition had been received here before yesterday's waterfront riot.

Machine guns were not in evidence yesterday as gangsters longshoremen and police clashed on the waterfront.

STONER APPEAL SET FOR JUNE 24

Canadian Press
London, June 19.—The appeal of George Percy Stoner, eighteen-year-old chauffeur, from his conviction of murder, was set to-day for June 24. It will begin then in the Court of Criminal Appeal.

Stoner was convicted of the murder of his employer, Frances Mawson Battenbury, formerly of Victoria, B.C., and supposed to be hanged.

Shipping and Strikers' Spokesmen Meet Under Dominion Fair Wage Officer

Picketing Ended, Says Police Chief

All Quiet Along Waterfront To-day; Sixteen Persons Appear in Court

Canadian Press
Vancouver, June 19.—The conference between the Shipping Federation of British Columbia and representatives of striking longshoremen ended to-day in a "deadlock," but with a request from F. E. Harrison, Dominion fair wage officer, that both parties take up with their associates the questions under dispute with a view to moderation of their respective positions.

The conferees met yesterday afternoon and to-day and it is understood the discussion centred almost entirely around the question of recognition of the Vancouver and District Waterfront Workers' Association. The Shipping Federation has withdrawn recognition of this body since the start of the recent troubles and is dealing with a new body, the Canadian Waterfront Workers' Association. It is understood that wages and the dispatching system of men to the docks did not come up to-day.

Mr. Harrison, chairman of the conference, stated the Dominion Department of Labour was willing at all times to act as mediator in the dispute.

STATEMENT AWAITED
The delegation of longshoremen returned to their headquarters, where this afternoon they were understood to be considering a decision in regard to the attitude which the opposing parties take to the advice of Mr. Harrison.

"Strong police guards to-day patrolled the waterfront here, scene of yesterday's riot, which took a toll of approximately 100 injured, nearly half of them police and the rest striking longshoremen and their sympathizers, including women."

"No more picketing will be permitted on the waterfront," declared Col. W. W. Foster, chief of city police, when he returned from a survey of the battle front which extended over an area of ten city blocks.

"I personally took the trouble to warn the longshoremen on Thursday last that if they attempted to cross the railway tracks there would be trouble," said Police Chief Foster to-day. "I again warned them on Tuesday afternoon as they proceeded to march to Ballantyne Pier."

"The only answer I got was from a man who whipped out a blackjack and the crowd moved forward. POLICE TOOK FLAG"

"In the middle of the front ranks was a man carrying a Union Jack, which was taken away from him by a city police officer. Beside him was a blind man who was led to the side of the crowd."

"The officers to one side until the crowd attempted to cross the second line of tracks. It was then that the order was given to lay down a barrage of tear gas blocks."

"The strikers never succeeded in passing that second line of tracks. (Turn to Page 2, Col. 4.)

PRIVATE DISCUSSION

"ASTONISHING LETTER"

Mr. Croll replied:

"In reply to your astonishing letter of June 14, I can only inform you:

"The government of Ontario has no intention of buying off Mrs. Dionne, nor of attempting to prevent her managers or herself from publishing whatever 'revelations' you succeed in selling to a United States syndicate.

"The government of Ontario knows of no facts which could, on publication, embarrass it. If the publication of matter other than facts is contemplated, the government cannot be threatened into paying you to 'tone it down'.

NO FURTHER COMMUNICATIONS

"Your letter is addressed to a government and not an individual; otherwise it must be obvious to you that it would lay you open to very serious charges. As it is, I can merely give you formal notification that I cannot contemplate further correspondence with you on any subject touching the Quintuplets or their parents.

speech from Matt Shaw, striker, standing on a truck, was given at the station dock.

With the delegation on its way to Ottawa, the strikers from British Columbia, Alberta and parts of Saskatchewan, settled down to await the return of their representatives and learn the success of their conference.

They were given three meals yesterday—first, second and third—on the way to-day—instead of the two meals a day they had been provided since they left here last Friday morning.

Whether they will return to their homes or consider continuation of the trek to Ottawa, ordered halted by federal authorities, will depend on conference at Ottawa, their leaders say.

HOUSING BILL BEFORE M.P.'S

Liberals Warn Against Creation of Another Costly Federal Staff

Canadian Press

Ottawa, June 19.—The basis of a $50,000,000 housing programme is before Parliament to-day as members study terms of the government's housing bill, which is the report of a special committee which studied the question this session. The bill was given first reading yesterday evening.

The plan is to authorize the Minister of Finance to advance up to $10,000,000 in loans for construction of new dwellings, subject to such terms of repayment as he may stipulate.

These advances would constitute 20 per cent of the total cost of the houses to be erected, including land purchase and legal costs, and if the whole appropriation is utilized $50,000,000 will be spent.

It is proposed the advances be made where another 80 per cent of the cost is advanced by approved lending institutions, which may be loan companies or public bodies set up by municipalities or provinces.

The bill proposes the Minister of Finance and the lending institution will take joint first mortgage on the properties as their security.

GRAVE PROBLEM

Introducing the bill for the Minister of Finance, who will have charge of the fund, Mr. George Parley, Minister without portfolio, said the housing problem was a grave one. He expressed the opinion its solution would bring more benefits than any other governmental action.

The bill proposes the economic council be called on to study and report on any housing or slum clearance schemes that may be now existing or may be advanced by municipalities or other bodies.

LIBERAL VIEWS

Liberals members received the bill with little enthusiasm.

If the bill involved setting up another commission with highly paid officials to plunge into things without regard to what provinces and municipalities were doing, it should be regarded with suspicion, said Liberal Leader Mackenzie King.

The housing problem was a complicated one, he agreed, but it could best be met by establishing a national commission which would serve to co-ordinate efforts of local and provincial bodies and avoid wasteful and expensive duplication of effort and overlapping.

DEPARTMENTAL WORK

Wilfrid Hanbury, Liberal, Vancouver-Burrard, said he was opposed to setting up another governmental commission. He believed an authority under one of the departments of government would be the best way.

He believed there were too many commissions in Canada already, and he was afraid of new measures of socialization if the government embarked on an ambitious housing scheme.

The existing mortgage and insurance companies were well equipped to finance house building, and the provincial moratorium laws were repealed. These laws had turned money away from building, and there was plenty of money available.

Mr. Hanbury believed the best way the government could assist was by underwriting the second mortgages on houses, thus assisting part of the risk. The Dominion Treasury would not become involved to a great extent as it would if it took over the whole financing or went into the building business.

SEAPERS SPEAK

A. A. Neape, Labor, Winnipeg, North, said Mr. Hanbury was so much concerned about the Dominion Treasury he would load it up with second mortgages and allow the privilege of interest, mortgage and insurance companies, to take up the first mortgages.

If these companies had money for house building they were not using it and could not loan money at a 4 per cent although the government could.

THE SIERRA CLUB MEN ARE WELL equipped for their task. They have made many daring climbs in California and elsewhere, roping up and down perpendicular shafts, which were believed to be impregnable. Among these are the Cathedral Spire which rises thousands of feet above the Yosemite Valley floor.

The party will consist of Lester Robinson, thirty-five-year-old attorney of Oakland, Cal., probable leader; Richard M. Leonard, also an attorney, of Oakland; Jules M. Elchorn, University of California student; Don M. Woods, San Jose, Cal., teacher; Dr. Harvey H. Voge, Washington, D.C.; William Lewis, Harvard University student; Boynton S. Kaiser, Sacramento, Cal., and David R. Brower, Berkeley, Cal.

Landing at Knight Inlet, B.C., 200 miles north of Vancouver, the men hope to work their way over a series of glaciers to the base of Mt. Washington. It is surrounded by snow and ice-covered peaks, in storm-swept region with an annual rainfall of 500 inches.

An attempt will be made to establish a high camp at 11,000 feet. The group—probably Robinson, Leonard and Elchorn—will be roped together to make the first ascent, and the others will form a supporting party.

At Nanking, the National Government declined to comment on dismissal of Governor Sung, although an official statement said "another military post awaits him which has not been decided."

CHINESE CONFERENCE

Hankow, China, June 19.—China's great and near great from north of the Yangtze River are gathering here, seeking redress for indignities or losses allegedly suffered in Japan's north China "purging" processes.

On every train south the Peiping-Hankow railroad they are coming in hopes of seeing Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek or General Chang Hsiang-shan, leaders of the Nationalist Government.

SEATTLE SUICIDE

Seattle, June 19 (Associated Press).—Misinterpreting the meaning of her employer's statement that she would be "let under bond," Esther Avery, thirty-four, trusted secretary of a Seattle investment house for nearly fourteen years, drove to her home here yesterday evening, closed the garage doors, left the motor running and ended her life by inhaling fumes from the exhaust.

AUTO FATALITY

Olde, Alta., June 19.—Henry Hickman of Sylvan Lake, was fatally injured when an auto in which he was a passenger plunged into a ditch near Carleton Place. He died in hospital at Olde early to-day.

Peace Moves In Vancouver Strike

ALL QUIET TO-DAY

"When I toured the waterfront this morning, everything was in order and no picketing was in progress, having been abandoned when I warned the men that such a practice would not be permitted to continue."

The longshore executive and the men themselves were given full warning of what would happen if they attempted to force their way to the docks. The Dominion Treasury was of an attempt to force violence on the city and could have only one result.

ESTIMATES OF INJURY

An exact estimate of the number of injured men who were repelled by police officers, using tear gas and clubs, was difficult to obtain.

The General Hospital reported twenty-nine had been treated there and four were admitted to St. Paul's Hospital.

More than thirty were treated at the police first aid station and estimates stated at least forty were given treatment at their homes.

City Constable H. Mutch and Provincial Constable Albert Dillabough, formerly of Victoria, were treated for minor injuries.

Constables W. A. Bayne, Alex. Carstairs and W. J. Sullivan, of the Vancouver City Police, were discharged from the hospital after receiving treatment for injuries.

It was stated three officers and five civilians were still in hospital to-day.

City Constable R. McDonald and City Constable Rod McDonald were stated to be suffering from possible internal injuries.

SIXTEEN FACE CHARGES

Sixteen men and one woman were held in custody to-day on various charges ranging from causing property damage to inciting to riot and disturbing the peace.

Two of the arrested identified themselves as engaged in longshore work, the remaining being painters, machinists and other tradesmen.

All the accused appeared in police court to-day and were remanded. Three will appear Thursday and Friday, but the others will not come up again until Monday. City prosecutor stated that in addition to any other charges, it was probable all would be charged with rioting.

The rioting yesterday afternoon turned to sporadic clashes after police had broken up a column of strikers who attempted to gain entrance to the Ballantyne Pier, where members of the Canadian Waterfront Workers' Association were loading deep sea ships.

The strikers scattered over an area of some ten city blocks and there was a devastating guerrilla warfare as police followed. The skirmishes extended into alleys, vacant lots and even into buildings. Flying missiles took a toll of police casualties, but the officers relied chiefly on their clubs. Police guns were not drawn.

RESCUES MADE

Several times, an organized police rush was necessary to rescue one or more of their comrades who had fallen under a charge of rioters. In several cases, police were pulled from horses and trampled and beaten.

Ambulances screamed into the battle area to remove the wounded, while other injured staggered around aimlessly, blood streaming from wounds. A number of these injured were taken away by their fellows.

Police were hindered by the crowds of curious spectators. Several of these observers were injured.

An inhaler crew was called to general strike headquarters to treat a number of men there suffering from the effects of tear gas fumes.

CHAIN LETTERS IN ENGLAND "FLOP"

Associated Press

London, June 19.—The North American chain letter, hailed as "the greatest get-rich-quick scheme that ever captivated a nation," has made its debut in England and was described by newspaper to-day as a "complete flop."

London newspapers, hinting of possible governmental repression of the scheme, set their mathematicians to work to show odds are heavily against profit from participation.

of the Vancouver and District Waterfront Workers' Association and other organizations affiliated with the Longshore and Water Transport Workers' Union, said they had been ordered to report for peaceful picketing in defiance of a police order forbidding picketing of any description.

The Vancouver and District Trades and Labor Council, following adoption of a resolution yesterday evening, expected to ask withdrawal of all police on the waterfront. The resolution was passed over the objections of the executive, which recommended no action be taken.

Under this law the "informer" receives one-half the penalties and the county the other half.

Zwerner alleged the telegraph company on June 7 accepted 500 "chain" telegrams at Camden, and that approximately 200 more were accepted each day between June 8 and June 15.

For each of the above mentioned lotteries the plaintiff became liable for the sum of $2,000, in the total of $8,600,000.

Two Divisions To Be Added to Four on Ethiopia's Borders

Canadian Press from Havas

Rome, June 19.—Two new divisions of "troops" soon will swell the steady stream of armed forces pouring toward Italy's two east African colonies in preparation for possible trouble with Ethiopia. It was learned here to-day in authoritative quarters.

It was learned a fifth blackshirt militia division were to be mobilized "before the opening of possible operations."

Four divisions already have been mobilized: the Gavianna and Felicitas divisions, now in Africa; the Sabauda, which is still undergoing transportation, to Africa; and the Gran Sasso division, which is preparing to embark. For each army division a corresponding militia division is mobilized.

URGES DISEASE PREVENTION

Vancouver, June 19.—The necessity for preventive rather than curative health work was emphasized by Hon. George M. Weir, British Columbia Provincial Secretary, in an address to members of a Vancouver Service Club, describing some of the province's health problems and its plans to combat them.

Weir gave figures showing the prevalence of tuberculosis, cancer and venereal diseases.

"There are about 340 persons present in this room, and it is a possibility that between thirty and forty of you, under present conditions, may become victims of cancer," he said.

Geologist Leads Party Between Esperanza River and Alberni Canal

Canadian Press

Vancouver, June 19.—Dr. M. F. Bancroft, professor of geology at Acadia University, Wolfville, N.S., has arrived in Vancouver to lead a field party into the Zaballos River district of Vancouver Island.

The Herbert Armitage section, scene of important gold discoveries during the last few months, will be visited by Dr. Bancroft, whose operations will extend from Esperanza River to the Alberni Canal.

The party will make its headquarters aboard a launch, from which it will work inland a considerable distance from several selected points.

BIG SUIT ON CHAIN TELEGRAMS

Associated Press

Trenton, N.J., June 19.—The Western Union Telegraph Company was Supreme Court for $8,600,000 on the ground it violated gambling laws by sending "chain" telegrams.

The suit was brought by William F. Zwerner of Merchantville as a "common informer" under the gambling law of 1877.

Under this law the "informer" receives one-half the penalties and the county the other half.

Zwerner alleged the telegraph company on June 7 accepted 500 "chain" telegrams at Camden, and that approximately 200 more were accepted each day between June 8 and June 15.

THIS NUDIST ENDED IN JAIL

Canadian Press

Agassiz, B.C., June 19.—A nude man caused considerable excitement here yesterday before being captured by police and lodged in jail.

Mrs. Ivan Walker was accosted by the man and ran to a nearby house and telephoned police officers. They located the nudist and after forcing him to clothe himself, took him to jail.

of the German delegation, notified Britain that Germany proposes to build the following ships between now and 1942: Five battleships, sixteen cruisers, five destroyers and thirty submarines.

London's morning press to-day welcomed almost without exception the new Anglo-German naval accord and some papers regarded it editorially as providing a guarantee against a naval race with the Reich.

Canadian Press from Havas

London, June 19.—Germany immediately followed up on the completion of the Anglo-German naval accord with an offer for an aerial accord along the same line. It was reliably reported here to-day.

The proposal to establish an aerial ratio with Great Britain, similar to the naval agreement, was made it understood, after Chancellor Adolf Hitler's ambassador at large and naval officer, Joachim von Ribbentrop, had made a private trip to the Foreign Office and conferred with Sir Robert Vansittart, assistant under-secretary of state at the Foreign Office.

The German proposal, it was said in well-informed circles, would be modeled exactly on the naval accord, specifying the kinds and numbers of war planes to be produced in Germany's newly-constituted air force.

Canadian Press from Havas

Paris, June 19.—Furious the Anglo-German naval accord had driven a wedge between the united front of France, Great Britain and Italy, the French capital gave a cool reception to a private trip to the Foreign Office and conferred with Sir Robert Vansittart, assistant under-secretary of state at the Foreign Office.

The government's official attitude was expected, would be outlined by Premier Pierre Laval later to-day when he was to appear before the foreign affairs committee of the chamber of deputies to discuss recent foreign developments.

Canadian Press from Havas

Berlin, June 19.—The German newspapers were unanimous to-day in calling the Anglo-German naval agreement a great Nazi victory.

Headlines such as "A great step forward!" "A step along the road to European peace," and "A historic event!" were printed in all the papers.

Montreal's New Taxes Success

Canadian Press

Montreal, June 19.—Montreal's new taxation was unofficially hailed at the city hall to-day as a "smashing success."

In cautious statements, officials intimated both income and sales taxes, which together are responsible for about four-fifths of the entire $4,000,000 the city seeks annually in new levies, are running ahead of estimates.

The sales tax for May, the first month reported, is understood headed for the $400,000 mark, even without reports of the 2 per cent tax on accounts of the power and telephone companies. The income tax was reported ahead of the estimate of $1,185,000 for Montreal, and about $200,000 for surrounding municipalities.

STATEMENT ON BONDS TRACED

How Chicagoans Were Led to Invest in Toronto Concern Is Told

Canadian Press
Toronto, June 19.—A certificate relating to Manufacturers Finance Corporation finances, signed by an auditor's official and submitted to the Wisconsin Securities Commission, yesterday was declared by J. M. Godfrey, K.C., Ontario securities commissioner investigating the defunct corporation's affairs, "the most serious thing revealed yet."

"It looks like a fraud on the Securities Commission," he said, during the examination of A. E. Hill, Chicago bond dealer, representative of Chicago interests who took up two $500,000 issues of the corporation's bonds.

On the basis of the certificate, the state commission approved of the securities there. It was signed M. L. Martin, per G. C. McIntyre. Mr. Martin, former auditor of the corporation, denied knowledge of the certificate.

Mr. Hill emphasized the calibre of the men on the board of directors had influenced those he represented in taking up the securities.

STEVEN'S LETTER
Copy of a letter written by Hon. H. H. Stevens, M.P., formerly a director, to Clarkson, liquidator of the company, on December 2, 1929, one and-a-half years following liquidation, was introduced. Stevens expressed a desire to refund his commissions, "not because they were wrongfully received, but because of subsequent unfortunate circumstances."

He emphasized he had accepted commissions only on the advice of counsel and after they were approved by a full board of directors. C. B. Bigelow, associate counsel for Mr. Stevens, drew attention to the paragraph which stated Mr. Stevens had asked particularly for information on defaults in the payment of paper discounts at the September, 1927, board meeting, the last meeting before his retirement.

In the letter Mr. Stevens quoted the general manager as saying there were only nine defaults preceding year and claims under the insurance contracts were not made because it had been found there were greater returns through repossessing the property than by making insurance claims, Mr. Bigelow said.

Mr. Stevens wrote he had urged the general manager to establish the validity of the insurance in the event the property of that period should wane and there should be an increase in the number of defaults. "I was again assured the insurance was in excellent condition," wrote Mr. Stevens.

Unused table butter was stamped with her signing ring by Queen Charlotte, wife of George VII, to make sure of its appearance at the next meal.

Recent Disturbances in Midwest Cause of 175 Deaths

Associated Press
Kansas City, June 19.—Disastrous spring floods, fed by rainfalls considerably higher than average in most parts of the nation, today had claimed an unofficial total of more than 175 lives, millions of dollars of property damage and undetermined losses to farmers in eleven midwestern states.

The greatest loss of life was in Nebraska, where the floods took 106 lives in the last few weeks. To date sixty-seven bodies were recovered and thirty-nine other persons listed as dead.

Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico counted twenty-nine dead; Texas and Oklahoma eighteen each. One was drowned in Illinois when an automobile struck a culvert and overturned in a flooded ditch.

Among the property damages estimated were $14,000,000 in Nebraska, $5,000,000 in Colorado, $500,000 in Minnesota from high winds, $4,000,000 in Texas, $1,250,000 in Oklahoma.

Crop losses defied estimate. In the Midwest, where a year ago farmers prayed for rain to end one of the worst droughts of history, the crying need today was for sunshine. Many producers already have planted two crops and are waiting for floods to subside before putting in a third.

The one bright spot on the flood scene was that in most sections the waters apparently were subsiding. Condemning this, however, was the fact that virtually every part of the nation, except the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts, reported rain yesterday. Most states also found the average rainfall for June were considerably heavier than usual, and that temperatures were below normal.

U.S. WILLING TO STABILIZE DOLLAR
Washington, June 19.—Willingness of the United States to stabilize its dollar at the present international value was indicated in high government quarters today by the assertion this country was "sitting pretty" in the world money markets.

Lending strength to the relief also was the official observation that in addition to being what Secretary of Treasury Henry Morgenthau called an "act of common decency between nations," the United States treasury's recent aid to the French franc was of primary benefit to this country's currency as well.

It appeared United States monetary heads are quite satisfied with the dollar's position at present.

Public Barred From Quake Ruins
Associated Press
Quetta, India, June 19.—A double fence of barbed wire, manned by military and civil police, sealed to-day the ruins of this "city of death," where 20,000 persons died in earthquakes.

All persons from the outside world were forbidden entrance until danger of an epidemic spreading from the decaying corpses has passed. Many bodies still lay buried in the debris.

It was feared full toll of death throughout the city and countryside would mount to more than 40,000.

BOYS ADMIT KIDNAPPING

Jasper, Ind., June 19.—Two boys, Bascom Ray and Maurice Sheridan, both in their teens, pleaded guilty yesterday shortly after being indicted for the kidnapping of Sheriff Ed. Leugers. The Indiana statutes provide either the death penalty or a life term for kidnapping.

Judge John L. Sumner deferred sentencing the boys pending word from their parents as to their exact ages. The Ray had said he was fourteen, while Sheridan gave his age as seventeen. They were captured Monday a few hours after they had kidnapped Sheriff Leugers from in front of the jail here and taken him to Roanville, where they released him shackled with his own handcuffs.

TROTSKY NOW IS IN NORWAY

Permitted By Government to Visit Mountains For Health

Oso, Norway, June 19.—Leon Trotsky, the modern man without a country, disappeared to-day in the fastnesses of Norway, where he has been granted temporary asylum.

With his wife and two secretaries, Trotsky hastened from Oslo to Hoenfoss, a small nearby town, after his arrival yesterday by steamer from Antwerp. Then the entire party was lost to sight.

Although Trotsky's visit to Norway is ostensibly for his health, the chauffeur of the car in which he had resided the order that sent all trams to the barns Monday when the company failed to observe the governor's edict to be ready to arbitrate.

Working until a late hour last night, the arbitrators asked the governor for a conference to clarify certain questions. The governor agreed to meet them to-day.

Street cars resumed operation in all sections of the city, including the south Omaha riot zone, without molestation after the military near had rescinded the order that sent all trams to the barns Monday when the company failed to observe the governor's edict to be ready to arbitrate.

With firm, lightning strokes, the military dictator substituted arbitration for rioting and commanded immediate naming of arbitrators.

Ask Backing For Statement
Vancouver, June 19.—Mayor G. G. McGeer by letter yesterday requested E. A. Dickie, Vancouver barrister, to appear before the Vancouver Police Commission to support his statement before the Court of Appeal in Victoria last week, which was taken to infer that disorderly houses licensed as rooming houses were operated in Vancouver.

At the same time License Inspector H. A. Urquhart stated only rooming houses approved by the police department were granted 1935 licenses. He said his department had refused fifteen applications for rooming-house licenses, acting on advice from the police department concerning morality charges.

Canadian Press Cable
London, June 19.—Promulgating findings of the court of inquiry into foundering of the freighter Unsworth, Lord Merrivale yesterday said the court found the master of the freighter did everything he could to save the vessel and was justified in ordering her to be abandoned.

The Unsworth sailed from Montreal for Queenstown last December and foundered in a storm on the Atlantic Ocean, during which her steering gear broke.

Fifteen of the crew of the Unsworth and two men from the Jean Jodot, which went to the rescue, were drowned when a lifeboat upset.

HE HAD A TOUGH JOB

IT IS A GREAT PITY THAT HON. EDGAR N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance in the Bennett government, is obliged through ill-health to retire from public life at the end of the present Parliament of Canada.

Obviously it was not an easy job to discharge the duties of Minister of Finance of this Dominion during the last year or so. As The Montreal Star very rightly observes, "upon few men have greater worries been thrust, and we suspect that physically, Mr. Rhodes should be commended another victim of the depression. Spiritually, he has never been downed. And he retires full of honors, after great services to his party, his province, and his country."

"It has never been Mr. Rhodes' lot to introduce a popular budget, since he held office in difficult times. By the same token, he has never introduced a merely political one—not even in this election year. Count that to his credit! His has been the ungrateful job of raising our taxes, not lowering them."

This newspaper recognizes the mettle of a man like Mr. Rhodes—as it does of a man like Colonel Ralston, who is opposed to Mr. Rhodes in politics, but is known for playing the game—and hopes that his health will permit his sterling Canadianism to prevail for many years.

BUILD TO A PLAN

IT IS REPORTED THAT THE PROVINCIAL government intends to spread its $1,500,000 road appropriation thin all over the province, a little slice for each constituency. We trust this is not true. If any such plan is in the government's mind, it might well take a few more days to think about its detailed programme before deciding on it finally. With only a small sum available—half of the total authorized by the Legislature—every dollar should be made to count in permanent improvement. This can not be done if the money is to be broadcast on anything like a per capita basis, simply in order that each district may feel that it is getting its share.

That has been the tragedy of British Columbia's highways from the beginning. They have been built on the per capita system, the local-politics system of horse-and-buggy days, until, for all our millions of expenditure, we have no substantial highway mileage fit for modern motoring. If we had built to a plan for the last fifteen years, there would be no need at all for the government's present emergency expenditure. We would have a magnificent system of hard-surfaced main highways with good gravel side roads running into them. Instead, we have wasted most of our money to serve the needs of local politicians. These pass, but the inadequate roads remain.

Even though the present appropriation is insufficient to complete any great highway project, it should at least be spent on the beginning of such a programme, as the first step in a definite plan, outlined in advance, with fixed objectives. Apart from the immediate requirements of new mining districts, what British Columbia needs most of all now is the development of Vancouver Island's main highways and the completion of a hard-surfaced road from the lower mainland into the interior. Until this work has been done, all our tourist advertising will not be able to counteract the unfortunate reputation of our highways among our neighbors in the United States, who now regard a gravel road as something belonging to the covered-wagon era.

Judging by our experience in the past, with chopping and changing, with patching and mending, we shall have practically nothing to show for our season's work and our new debt unless the money is spent according to a long-range plan of development. We hope that when the government announces the allocation of the money, it will indicate how its current programme fits into the larger highway scheme of the future.

A LOSS TO PUBLIC LIFE

CANADIAN PUBLIC LIFE WILL BE THE loser when Colonel J. L. Ralston, former Minister of National Defence in the King government, goes back into his private professional business as a very talented lawyer.

Colonel Ralston has been a tower of strength to the Liberal opposition. His outstanding ability in the matter of finance, naturally has not been popular with the present government; but it has commanded the respect of economists in this and other countries.

The former Minister of Defence is a Liberal by conviction. He is not, and never has been, an opportunist. He is a Canadian who understands Canada and what its destiny should be.

It is Colonel Ralston's business that he decides his future. He still is a young man—in his early fifties. But all Liberals will hope that he will change his mind—and serve Canada in Parliament. We can ill afford to lose men of his calibre.

HEPBURN GETTING HIS MONEY

"EVERYTHING IS GOING SPLENDIDLY" and we are entirely satisfied. We are quoting the words of Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn, of Ontario, speaking of that province's $20,000,000 bond issue. He said yesterday that applications for this particular issue was "running into millions." The bonds are being sold over the counter. The action of the Ontario government followed the absence of tenders from financial houses for a $15,000,000 loan the other day.

This is another case of a province of the Dominion, so to speak, "going it alone." When Mr. Hepburn assumed office last summer with a strong working majority he set about putting the financial house of Ontario in order. One of his ministry's first acts was to cancel certain power contracts because the government thought they were not in the public interest. The government was at once assailed by the financial moguls of central Canada and criticized by a few—very few—financial journals in Great Britain, although little British capital was involved in these power investments.

Investors of the United States—there is more United States money invested in these projects than there is British—do not seem to have worried much. Evidently the New World attitude toward matters of this kind is somewhat different from that of Europe. This is not to say that there is any disposition to condone sharp practices; it is merely a better understanding of conditions on this side of the Atlantic.

Mr. Hepburn knows that while certain interests will continue to say that Ontario's credit has been ruined, there will be many Ontario citizens who will see that there is sufficient money made available to carry on the various tasks of government and all that they imply.

CONSIDER THE ESKIMOS

A GROUP OF SCIENTISTS HAS SAILED for the Arctic to investigate the health habits of the Eskimos. They are anxious to discover why this hardy race, living under conditions which would quickly exterminate the people of warmer climates, are free from many of the diseases which affect our civilization.

Apart from medical questions involved, there is a certain irony in the scientists' investigations. Even if they discover why the Eskimos escape the diseases which afflict civilization, civilized men are not likely to do anything about it. In civilization we have achieved an amazing knowledge of medicine, a high skill in the prevention of disease, but the natural habits of our race almost cancel out all these scientific advances. The ordinary man, with an average constitution and reasonable luck, could be a model of health and physical strength if he were to utilize the knowledge of science and follow the simple rules of sane living. But how many do?

The flapper dieting herself into a decline to keep her figure down to Hollywood proportions; the business man, working himself into a nervous breakdown simply to earn a fortune which he will never enjoy spending; the fellows who hardly move except in automobiles and cannot trouble to keep their waist lines down; all of us who are caught up in the swirl, the nervous exhaustion and the soft living of these times should be a grim warning to the Eskimos. They escape the diseases of our civilization because they are not civilized. And once man becomes civilized his comfort seems to count more with him than his health.

JUST FOLKS

By Edgar A. Guest

THE JUNE GROOM

The June groom is the handsome brute
Who wears the usual tailored suit;
A white carnation on his coat
An egg-shaped lump inside his throat.
And at the altar, where he stands,
Fidgets and fuses with his hands.

Out of the church's ante-room
Come parson, best man and the groom.
The minister assumes his place,
A solemn look upon his face.
The June groom stares along the aisle
And thinks it measures full a mile.

Here comes the bride! All radiant, she
Is one that necks are craned to see.
The groom's forgotten! Safely now
Unnoticed he may mop his brow,
Adjust his collar, coat and tie,
For none on him will cast an eye.

I'd like to tell him, be at ease,
While standing there do what you please,
Although it is your wedding, too,
The spotlight won't be thrown on you.
Whether in church or crowded room,
The last man noticed is the groom.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By ALINE MICHAELIS

CIRCLES

The stars, the moon,
This spinning Earth
We ride upon
Are circles,
Circling on their way;
More circles bring
Us night and day.

From birth to death
Our whole life span
Is but a circling
Caravan.
From young to old,
From low to high
We pass in circles
Till we die.

Yet gladly all
In circles move;
A circle shows
Eternal love.

And count the gains I've made,
The happiest victories I've won
Were when I was afraid.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

NOT A FORTIFICATION
The Winnipeg Tribune

This hint that the United States might proceed to "fortify" the Canadian border by stealth, as it were, was as a matter of fact nothing more serious than a faux pas. It is not likely or even possible that such a thing would be done. If the United States Government decides to establish air bases at or near the Canadian border, there is no reason why Canada should object or any likelihood that it would object. An air base is not a fortification.

SOUR NOTE
The Edmonton Bulletin

The London Chamber of Commerce reports that world trade in 1934 continued to wither away, thanks to the "strenuous but misguided efforts of various nations to bolster their economic positions by maintaining a favorable balance of trade through quota systems and tariff barriers." All true enough, of course. Still, the Chamber might have been kind enough to refrain from letting off that "blast" just about the time Premier Bennett was due to arrive in London.

Loose Ends

Professor Thorndike, underestimates the American appetite. Dr. Weir overestimates the need of education—we keep on piling up the load on the camel—and there is Truth on Quadra Street.

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

WORMS

THE LATEST REPORTS from the battlefield indicate that the famous American Professor Thorndike's recent horror tests were perfectly silly, as one had suspected. You may recall that the professor asked a group of unemployed persons a series of idiotic questions and found that some of them wanted $100,000 to eat a live worm, while others would take $50,000 for spitting on a picture of Washington, and a few refused to practice cannibalism at any price. These tests were supposed to establish some of the higher principles of psychology and the social trends of the times. But they were purely theatrical.

The practical facts emerged a few days ago. Evidence pouring into newspaper offices from all over America shows (1) that a fellow in Denver has eaten an earthworm fresh, fat and raw, for twenty-five cents cash; (2) a boy in Overbrook, Pa., will eat Japanese beetles for a small consideration to help him through college, which is a gallant way of acquiring an education; (3) a Harvard student, also in search of learning, ate a large fat worm before many witnesses for two-bits; (4) near Brownstone, Ind., a Harold Jankovits, C.O.C. worker, chewed the head off a blacksnake for $1 to help pay for an eye operation so that he might go to West Point.

Apparently there isn't anything which will stop the young American in quest of an education. If he can't work his way through college he will eat his way through. Such a generation of worm, beetle and snake eaters should go far. These practical tests prove also that Dr. Thorndike's conclusions were entirely exaggerated. The average American isn't half as mercenary as the professor had imagined. Instead of $100, he asks only two-bits to eat a worm. He does not derive his satisfaction from the mere money. The joy of the work itself is his real reward.

WEIRD IDEA

HON. G. M. WEIR, Provincial Minister of Education, has lately roused the yokelery with the statement that Canada spends $20,000,000 a year on university education and $23,000,000 on cosmetics, beauty parlors and other aids to the female anatomy. This seems to appal the doctor, but I can't quite see why it should. I mean to say, the relative value of these two figures depends on what you want in your civilization. Put it the other way around—if we were to spend the total of $43,000,000 on university education and none on the adornment of the female anatomy, which seems to be the idea of the higher educationists, what a world we should live in!

Can you, indeed, imagine the stark horror of homes, offices and streets cluttered with female university graduates, all uniformly beautiful in mind, but without a lick of paint on their faces, without a wave in their hair, with only the face and figure that nature gave them? Perhaps a generation of male university graduates could endure such a world of female university graduates, but I doubt it. My experience with higher educationists leads me to believe that they have an eye for the aesthetic sides of life and their appreciation of beauty goes beyond the classics and the sciences.

Perhaps some day we shall emerge from barbarism and get educated. Perhaps some day we shall become so sensible that all our money will be poured into education and none into cosmetics, corsets and what not. But it is reassuring to note that long before that glorious day of emancipation you and I and Dr. Weir will be dead.

SIDE GLANCES

By George Clark

"Now, officer, can't you just let me off with a good howling out?"

All during our lifetime the average woman will prefer beauty to education. Alas, in most cases she achieves neither.

IT GOES UP

IN ALL THIS controversy over the use of sinking fund earnings to finance the provincial road programme, the real difficulty seems to be generally overlooked. The real difficulty isn't that we are using sinking fund moneys for current purposes, or dipping into the till, as some bumble-headed fellows seem to think. The difficulty is that we are increasing our debt, which would occur however we borrowed the money.

We will increase our debt $2,000,000 on that score and about $4,000,000 for unemployment relief this year. We have been doing that, or worse, ever since the depression started and long before. In the good times, indeed, we used to increase it about $10,000,000 a year. Give us another fifteen years or so and we shall increase it a round $100,000,000 and hand the glorious total on to our children, who will hand it on to theirs. The only mathematical calculation of interest is one which would show at what point the camel's back will be broken.

It is true, of course, that debt is a relative thing, a fact which most politicians, economists and editors haven't yet imagined. If your business turnover is large and rapid enough, you can contract any amount of debt. But when your debt is small your debt must be contracted like-wise, or you are sunk. Under our gorgeous system we contract our debt in good times and expand it in bad.

Actually, we don't even do that. We never contract it at all. We keep expanding it and praying God that we may be dead before the inevitable day of reckoning arrives. This arrangement has worked all right so far, but some of us may be caught alive, if we don't watch out.

TRUTH

TRUTH says the bulletin on a Quadra Street church, which I pass several times a day, will prevail, but it needs gallant men to win its victories. Like all the sentiments bulletins on this church it is worthy of deep thought. Indeed, I often think so deeply about the bulletins that my driving on Quadra Street becomes dangerous.

Yes, but what is truth? That is the great trouble—nobody knows. You can get gallant men to win victories for truth once you can determine where and what it is. But as nobody agrees, gallant men usually win victories, at great personal sacrifice for anything but truth, for falsehood, for greed, for any old thing which looks like truth at the time.

You can't get the truth about any single thing in the world to-day, or even an approximation on which men can agree for purposes of convenience. This is the chief feature distinguishing us from our ancestors, who usually were wrong, but were so unanimous in their ignorance that they managed to hang together and wriggle through. Nowadays, everybody thinks he knows the truth and that his neighbor doesn't, with a resulting chaos of ideas which threatens the whole structure of society.

It is the new enthusiasm for truth which makes the whole thing so complicated; for every theorist, every monetary reformer, every economist, idealist, quack and freak, is entirely convinced that he is speaking the ultimate truth and the final wisdom of nature.

You should remember that and be patient with these fellows. They are not dangerous because they are dishonest, but because they are too honest. They have such a reverence for what they believe to be the truth that they have to go rushing out of the house and do something about it. That is what makes life clamorous, complicated and rather futile these days—everybody thinks he has the truth and nobody really has. If truth wants gallant men to win victories for her, as the bulletin board suggests, she had better proclaim herself pretty soon, or all the gallant men will have been killed off fighting for untruths.

Interesting Visitor Says London Gay; Paris Is Dead

Young, blonde, charming, a widow who before her marriage majored in Greek at the University of California and since has written and sold more than the odd short story, Mrs. Florence Sylvester of San Francisco, now guest at the Empress Hotel, she has spent the last twelve months exploring the high and by ways of England and Europe, and high lights the European scene in an interesting and vivid fashion.

London, she says, is the gayest city over there at present. Paris is dead compared with it. Theatres are crowded so that you must book weeks ahead. Clothes are lovelier and less expensive than those of Paris.

Mistress, which she saw under the tutelage of Merrill White, once with Paramount producing Chevalier pictures and now with the British and Dominion, certainly does not attempt to rival Hollywood in expensive productions, but is doing good work all the same. Studios are going up fast.

Germany is particularly nice to tourists. The treatment accorded them there is marvelous, she claims. The tourist mark is specially designed not to fluctuate, and if you do not mention Hitler you get on splendidly. Tea-ing one day in the Kaiserhof Berlin with Mr. and Mrs. Stokes of the South African embassy, says Mrs. Sylvester, we saw him three tables away. We talked of him as "Mr. Smith."

"I don't like Italy one bit," she went on. "Mussolini has cleaned up Rome of course, but Naples and lots of other places are just as dirty as ever they were. Lots of beggars with sore eyes still."

"Greece was gorgeous—wonderful. And contrary to my expectation the people have a high grade of mentality."

"I had never really believed people could be in actual fact—but they are in Yugoslavia—Austria too. And the bitterness against the war is awful."

This is the first time she has been either to Canada or Vancouver Island, but she is quite convinced it will not be her last.

SHORTS TABOO IN YONKERS

Court Warns Girls Against Wearing Them in City Streets

Associated Press.
Yonkers, N.Y., June 19.—Miss Florence Parsons, executive secretary of the Women's Institute, an organization of Yonkers clubwomen, yesterday came to the defense of four young women who were hauled into city court and warned by Judge Martin Fay that Yonkers would not tolerate the wearing of shorts in its streets.

The young women, and a fifth who was excused from the court appearance, were handed summonses yesterday at instigation of Alderman William E. Slater. Fay admonished them against a repetition and released them.

"He (Slater) is several years behind his times," exploded Miss Parsons. "He had any experience he'd know that when girls go to the country they let their hair down and take out the pins—and bare legs go with that."

The movies which Alderman Slater took of the girls in their shorts yesterday as "evidence" was not shown in court. Alderman Slater took them home.

INDIAN NAMED IN DIVORCE

British M.P. Cites Aga Khan's Son as Co-respondent

Associated Press.
London, June 19.—Prince Ali Khan, son of the fabulously wealthy Indian sportsman, the Aga Khan, was cited today as co-respondent in an undenied divorce suit brought by Thomas Leel Guinness, Conservative member of Parliament against his wife.

Named in the list posted in the divorce division of the law courts as "Guinness vs. Guinness and Khan," the case may not come up for hearing this term since it is number 998 in the list.

Mr. and Mrs. Guinness were married July 4, 1927. She was the Hon. Joan Yardie-Buller, the daughter of the late Lord Churston. Guinness himself is twenty-nine years old.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED
MOTHER WITH ONE BRILLIANT, ONE STUPID CHILD HAS SERIOUS PROBLEM

The problem of a mother with two children, one of whom is brilliant, the other mediocre, is a tense and serious one. The mother's sympathy is with the child who "does her proud," and, unable to face her own partially, she blames the less brilliant child and thus makes her own critical attitude justifiable.

Here is a girl of nine who is a slow student, though she has always made her grades at school. She likes music and is interested in it and her mother is sure that she could do better in school if she would only make the effort. "Lack of concentration," that bromide excuse for failure to excel in school, again is offered.

A FOLLOWER

The girl does not make friends easily. When playmates come she lets them take the lead and follows them rather than asserting her own personality. When adults are about she gets in the way, interrupts their conversation and wants to be noticed. She is amiable to her mother, good natured and easy to manage, but shows jealousy of her five-year-old brother and treats him crossly.

On the contrary the five-year-old boy is a natural show-off and the mother is always being complimented on his good looks and brilliancy. The mother wants help in prodding the girl.

THE GIRL KNOWS

This is a household tragedy of no very subtle kind. The mother's attitude is fostered by her pride in the smart boy and her uneasiness in the fact that the girl is neither his physical or mental equal.

The girl is aware of the mother's attitude as if she had been told it in so many words. She tries clumsily to garner some of the attention showered so generously upon the boy and she feels that she is inferior in school and the mother's urging and constant pleadings to try to do this, try to do that—are enough to crush instead of stimulate her.

MOTHER'S DUTY

The only help can come from the source which has proved her undoing—the mother. It is she who must ferret out and encourage the child's aptitude and capacities. She should be given the opportunity to study music. Whatever she can do should be brought to the admiring attention of others, not for flattery, but to build up the child's self esteem.

She should have as much, but no more attention than the younger child.

When she feels herself as well loved as the young brother, she will cease to suffer from jealousy and the need for unnecessary notice and will become a sweet and pleasing personality—if not a brilliant one.

MORE DIVORCES IN HOLLYWOOD

Helen Morgan Among Actresses Who Are Tired of Their Lawful Mates

Associated Press.
Los Angeles, June 19.—Divorces in Hollywood are beginning to gain ground against Cupid in the Hollywood movie colony. Up to a few days ago there had been more marriages than divorces in the screen capital. To-day, however, Helen Morgan, Lorna Andre and Ruth Corbin are scheduled to dispense with their lawful wedded mates.

Miss Morgan, who gained fame by singing atop pianos, is scheduled to divorce Maurice Maschke Jr., Claret and lawyer.

She charged her husband threatened to drive an automobile over a cliff because she refused to return with him. She also charged non-support.

Miss Andre asked for an annulment of her marriage to Edward Norris, actor. She asserted before the marriage he told her he was able to provide her with the necessities and luxuries of life, but had failed to do so.

Miss Corbin asked for a divorce from Jacques de Vries. She said she had to support him during their years of marriage.

To Give Travel Talk—Mrs. Wm. Russell will give a travel talk on her recent visit to Germany on Friday afternoon, June 21, at 3 o'clock, in the hall of the Emmanuel Baptist Church, corner of Fernwood and Gladstone. The affair is being held under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society. There will be special music and tea will be served. A silver collection will be taken in aid of the missions.

Equimult Garden Party—The garden party planned by Missag Court No. 2 Order of Amaranth, will be held Saturday, June 22, at the home of Mrs. W. Grimes, Signal Hill, Equimult. It will be opened at 3 o'clock by Mrs. J. T. Boulton and will continue until 5:30. The stall of home cooking will be convoked by Mrs. W. H. Dalloway, the candy stall by Mrs. E. S. Shadbolt. Tea will be in charge of Mrs. G. Wines. In the evening, at 8 o'clock, bridge and what will be played at the home of Mrs. J. Kelly, 1357 Equimult Road. In the event of rain a tea will be held at Mrs. Kelly's home instead of the garden party.

HEAR MESSAGE OF PHILOSOPHY

Dr. H. T. J. Coleman Tells Kiwanians of New Conception of Human Endeavor

The message of encouragement which modern philosophy has to give to a tired and rather uncomfortable world was expounded simply to members of the Kiwanis Club at their luncheon yesterday by Dr. H. T. J. Coleman, head of the Department of Philosophy at the University of British Columbia.

Man, he said, was essentially a creator. There was something within him which could look forward and not only see the future, but help to shape it.

The old idea of progress as something inevitable, a current which would move onwards despite all cross currents, was passing. There was a new conception of life as something of an adventure—not merely a gamble, but an adventure in which man himself could take his part.

"We must find a home in the world, not only for our physical bodies and our interests, but a home for our spirits—that home philosophy is trying to build."

STRANGER IN WORLD

"Modern science and industry have taken the wrong course, they have taken the idea that only the material things count, so that man has become a stranger in the world, bewildered and lost, driven to the conclusion that we as individuals do not count."

Modern philosophy, said Dr. Coleman, was not trying to push men back into the middle ages, but to show that the very vastness of time and space could be regarded after all as evidence of the greatness of the human mind which was able to envisage them even imperfectly.

"If it has taken all these ages to create mankind, may we not look forward to an even more spacious future?" he added.

CREATOR ENERGY

"Philosophy has cancelled the old notion that the world is put together like a clock—that we are what we are because nature has pounded us into that shape. We are what we are because we are the product of a certain creator energy in the human spirit."

This energy, he said, was a continuing thing, passed down from generation to generation by teaching and in the ideals of men.

TRUE DEMOCRACY

Dr. Coleman foresees a return to a truer form of democracy, in its fullest deepest sense, "after all our experiments have been tried and proved false, as they will be."

The speaker praised the mental outlook of the people of Victoria.

"Their air of restfulness is quite compatible with serious endeavor. They seem to have learned a lesson which the world so much needs to know—of happy balance in life," he said.

Letters were received by the club from the Port Angeles Kiwanis club, suggesting a joint luncheon on board the S.S. Inokoma on July 9 or 10, and from Mayor Leeming inviting the club to take part in the public basketball game to be held at the new Goldstream Park on Wednesday, June 26.

Birthday greetings were offered to A. G. Stukely, who celebrates an anniversary on Friday.

NANAIMO ASKS $292,000 LOAN

Nanaimo, June 19.—Nanaimo City Council, following an interview with Hon. George Pearson, will make application to the government for a loan of $292,000, mostly for waterworks purposes.

A report was received from the mayor and members of the water committee, setting out their proposals in the matter of applying for a loan, and these were ordered adopted, with the proviso that, if the full amount asked for cannot be obtained, the committee press for a loan for at least enough to complete five miles of the pipeline.

Canadians Drawn For Early Matches In Wimbledon Tourney

THE SPORTS MIRROR

THE COURT career of Vincent Richards, former "bad boy" of United States tennis, who started as an amateur and then won professional, national and world championships, is finished. Recently he was injured in a motor car accident.

"The ulna bone of my right arm is broken. There was a triple fracture above the wrist and I shall never be able to get any rotating motion in the right wrist again," Richards stated, describing his injury.

Taking the cheerful attitude, Richards continued with the statement he was considering cutting down on his tennis anyhow, feeling the game was taking up too much of his time.

Thirty-two years of age, a former United States Davis Cup player, Richards is one of the best known professional players in lawn tennis. While still an amateur he represented the United States in all parts of Europe and was prominent at Wimbledon in 1928.

Three times victor over William T. Tilden as an amateur, he won the United States professional title in 1929 when he defeated Karel Koucky. That same year he was half of the world's doubles professional championship pair.

In 1933 he reached the semi-final at Wimbledon and lost to W. M. Johnston in a five-set match described at the time as "Wimbledon's greatest fight."

Few players have incurred the wrath of the governing bodies of United States tennis as did Richards. With a vitriolic pen, "Winnie" attacked the moguls in as neat a fashion as sport has seen. It was he more than any other who exposed the "tennis bun." It was he who revealed the authorities at that time to be petty-minded die-hard who wanted tennis to remain a rich man's game entirely. And it was he, in a large extent, who paved the way for other tennis greats to crash the professional ranks without loss of face.

Whatever other contributions he made to tennis, Richards certainly did a great piece of work for the professional side of the game.

His sallies against the established order, which he considered in motion, were more barbed and more aptly directed than the more recent comment of Ellsworth Vines, the latest world figure to turn to the moneyed ranks.

A member of the United States national committee is authorized for the statement that Frederick J. Perry will defend his United States "singles tennis championship" at Forest Hills this fall. He declares that the international titleholder will be accompanied by one other ranking Briton.

Roderick Menni also has promised to come over. The large Czech's visit largely will depend on how he is playing abroad in August.

Norman Brooks said flatly when he was here three weeks ago that the Australians would not compete in the United States championships.

The national committee points out that the French do not care to come to America. "Neither do the Japanese," he declares. "Why should they? We have not as a nation been particularly active in an interchange of players."

"We will have a good tournament at Forest Hills, however. All of the British women of the Wightman Cup forces will be there."

The Forest Hills tournament will be conducted according to the Wimbledon pattern this year.

Marcel Rainville To Meet Perry In Opening Net Round

Famous Tennis Tournament to Start on English Courts Next Monday

Von Cramm Seeded Second to Leader

Canadian Press Cable
London, June 19.—Marcel Rainville, Montreal's diminutive tennis star, was drawn to-day against Fred Perry, the world's top-ranking player, in the Wimbledon tennis championships, starting June 24.

The tournament committee sprang a surprise by seeding Baron Gottfried von Cramm of Germany, number two in the men's singles, behind the defending champion, Fred Perry of England.

Jack Crawford, Australia, was seeded number three, followed by H. W. (Bunny) Austin of England, Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas, Sidney Wood of New York, Roderick Menni of Czechoslovakia, and Christian Bousquet of France, in that order.

Perry and Rainville are in the top quarter, in the second quarter, which includes Crawford and Wood, Laird Wait of Montreal meets Landry of France. The winner will meet the winner of the match between Marcel Bernard of France and Hecht of Czechoslovakia.

MONTREALERS TO PLAY
In the bottom quarter Bobbie Murray of Montreal meets Troinac of France. The winner will encounter the winner of the match between Norman Parquharson of South Africa and Mulliken. In the same quarter Roland Lenglin of Montreal will meet Curt, the winner meeting the winner of the match between Teuchmeyer of Holland and Von Metaxa of Austria.

In the second round of the women's singles, Eleanor Troughton, Canadian junior champion, of Vancouver, will meet Mme. de Meulemeester, nee Sigart, of Belgium, after a bye in the first round of the top quarter.

Dorothy Boudreau, Australian, also has a bye in the first round of the same quarter.

VANCOUVER GIRLS
Caroline Deacon, Canadian senior champion, also of Vancouver, will meet Miss Riddell in the bottom quarter after a first-round bye.

Katherine Stammers and Hilda Krahwinkel Sperling also have first round byes in this quarter. Germany also gained second position in the seeding for women's singles.

Frau Sperling, who recently won the French title after defeating Helen Jacobs, the United States titleholder in the semi-finals, was rated just behind Dorothy Round, the English star and defending champion.

Miss Jacobs was seeded number three, followed by Crawford and Adrian Quist, Jean Borotra and Jacques Brugnon, and Donald Budge and Gene Mako, the youthful United States combination.

Dorothy Amos of Stamford, Conn., and Mme. Sylvia Enottin of France, topped the draw in the women's doubles field with Mme. Mathieu and Frau Sperling number two. Miss Stammers and Freda James number three, and Elsie Goldsack Pittman and Adeline Yorks number four.

For mixed doubles Von Cramm and Frau Sperling were top-seeded, followed by Perry and Enottin.

OWENS AFTER FOUR TITLES

Famous Ohio State Flier to Enter Four Events in National Collegiate Meet

Associated Press
Los Angeles, June 19.—Jesse Owens, Ohio State's great negro athlete, probably will compete in four events in the National Collegiate track and field championship Saturday.

Only his name is not Jesse Owens. Neither is it James Cleveland Owens. His Christian name is simply, "J. C."

"What is your name," asked the teacher the first day he attended school there after moving to Ohio from the south.

"J. C.," said Jesse.

"Jesse?" questioned the teacher again.

"J. C.," the youth repeated.

So Jesse it became.

Coach Larry Snyder of the Buckeye team, while still undecided, leaned to-day toward the plan of running Owens in three races and the broad jump.

"If I thought for a minute four events was too much work for the boy," said Snyder, "I would keep him out of the hurdles. But they do not seem to tire him at all, and I think it would be a great performance for Jesse to look back upon it as he were to win the hundred, two twenty hurdles and broad jump in a National Collegiate championship."

"It would be a long time before another athlete came along who could duplicate the feat."

YORKSHIRE UP IN STANDINGS

HORSE OWNERS STRIKE ENDS

Canadian Press
Toronto, June 19.—Thoroughbred breeders of Ontario yesterday called off their "strike" against race-track operators following a statement Monday by Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn that the government would appoint a control commission if the breeders and operators did not agree.

A number of owners refused to race their strings at Thorncliffe Park recently.

BLANTON WILL ESCAPE KNIFE

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

—By John Hix

Tasmania, an island state of Australia, was the home of a race now called the Tasmanians when white men first discovered the island. The Tasmanians probably numbered between 5,000 and 6,000 at one time, were of doubtful origin, and were less advanced than the aborigines of Australia. They had neither the weapons of the Australians—the bow, boomerang, spear thrower nor the ability to make pottery.

These primitive people dwindled away with the beginning of white settlements, and in 1825—just twenty years after the settlement began—there were just 340 Tasmanian natives left. By 1865 there were only four, and the last of these is said to have died in 1878.

Pedro Gomez, Mexican revolutionist, soldier of fortune, smuggler, has suffered fifteen gunshot wounds in his fighting career—any one of them serious enough to have been fatal—yet he lives as though he were a bullet-proof man.

Once he stood before a firing squad. Five of the rifle bullets took effect in the abdomen and chest. They thought he was dead, but as is the custom of the commanding officer of the squad stepped forward and shot him in the head with a revolver. The shot entered behind the ear. A captain nearby complained that that was not the way to administer the final bullet. He stepped forward and shot Gomez between the eyes. Strange as it seems, Gomez came to during the night, crawled away, and recovered. He has also been shot three times by U.S. border guards, and five times in battle while serving with Villa.

To-morrow: City of two worlds.

SOOKE VICTORS IN ANNUAL MEET

Sooke Superior School captured the T. Wright Cup, symbolic of the annual track and field supremacy of Sooke and Luxton Schools, when they carried off four of the first in the seven events recently.

Eric Michelsen's triple victory was the outstanding feature in the event. He took honors in the 100-yard dash,

WOULD SPEED UP WRESTLING

Jim Londos Advances Plans For Short Fast Rounds With One-fall Verdict

Canadian Press
Indianapolis, June 19.—Jim Londos wants to speed up the sport of wrestling.

"Wrestling should be more like boxing," he said to-day. "Let's have eight, ten or fifteen three-minute rounds with one fall or a decision. I believe the fans will like it, and it will be better for the wrestlers. No stalling, just wrestle, with no playing around."

When such a step will come, said the squat Greek who is recognized as heavyweight champion by the National Wrestling Association, depends on the promoters. They have no organization, he said, and a change "may take two or three years."

DEFENDS SPORT

The soft-spoken St. Louis wrestler, thirty-seven years old, has been in the professional ring for fifteen years and expects to play another ten. He defended the sport's popularity.

"There is showmanship in almost everything," Londos said, "but a wrestler cannot get by on that alone. He must have ability."

His advice to the newcomers is "be sincere."

"The ones who think they can come into wrestling and make a lot of money and play around at the same time won't last long," Londos warned. Yesterday Londos, scaling 202, defeated Bill Edwards, 216, Dallas, Tex., by one fall at Indianapolis.

Banish Thistles will hold a practice game Friday evening at 6.30 o'clock at Heywood Avenue grounds as a workout for the Connaught Cup series.

LONDON NET PLAY CLOSE

Wilmer Allison Extended to Reach Quarter-finals in Tennis Tourney

Associated Press
London, June 19.—Playing sportily as a result of lack of practice and the handicap of a wet court, Wilmer Allison, United States Davis Cup veteran, had a brisk match on his hands in the London tennis championships to-day before he eliminated R. J. Ritchie, 6-2, 10-8, to reach the quarter-finals.

Allison finally was forced to storm the net in the latter stages of the long second set to win.

Braddock Victor In Tough Early Fights

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
New York, June 19.—Within three years after the start of his professional career, when he knocked out Leo Doherty for a purse of $75, Jimmy Braddock fought Tommy Loughran for the light heavyweight championship of the world, collected $25,000 for his share—and a nest licking.

He came up the hill with a tremendous speed and went down just as fast.

He knocked out eleven in a row, won a couple of decisions, then flattened five more, won ten more decisions before he started to hit the top-notchers, early in 1928.

Tuffy Griffiths, with a great reputation, came into the Garden from Chicago and Braddock knocked him out in two rounds, first of the many short-end victories he turned in before glancing his career with victory over heavyweight champion Max Baer in the Garden Bowl on Long Island. He broke Pete Latona's jaw in four places. He knocked out Jimmy Slattery, once a great light heavyweight, in nine rounds. But along in 1928 and 1929 he lost decisions to Joe Seckyra, Leo Lomaki, Maxie Rosenbloom, and Loughran. He won the 175 pound crown was at stake.

Then the crash of 1929 swept away the modest fortune he had piled up. He had to start all over again. He was showing signs of the rough, slug-ging warfare he has been through. So bad was Jimmy's right hand he fought only five times in 1930, losing three of them to Leo Lomaki, Billy Jones and Babe Hunt.

Jimmy went back to the docks as a stevedore, but there was only a day's work now and then. He was on relief for thirteen months, getting $24 a month, which helped.

He was about as far down as a fellow can be when along came the turning point, Corn Griffin of Georgia just one year ago this time.

On his outgoing nine Sandy was five up at the turn, with a birdie on the fourth and one under par 35 for the nine holes. Cumming had four par holes but couldn't halt the "perturbable" "Sandy" who ended the match at the twelfth.

Fred Wright, from Weston, Mass., one of the dark horses from across the border, carried Gene Mako, a second round with a 2 and 1 win over G. R. Bayner Jr. of Niagara Falls, N.Y.

Dan Kennedy, Winnipeg, pressed round 18-5 and 5 and 3 win over one of the United States entrants, Jack Ahern, of Buffalo.

FARLEY BEATEN
Phil Farley, one of the outstanding Ontario contestants, went down to defeat in one of the early upsets before R. L. Proctor of Edmonton. The Alberta youngster won one up.

Joe Thompson of Burlington had to put up a stiff battle to overcome Hugh Jacques, Whitlock, Montreal, one up. "Walt" Mathieu, of Edmonton, passed out of the competition in the second round against Howard Jones of Chedoke, Hamilton, Jones won one up.

Bobby Reith of Winnipeg kept the western delegation in the hunt with a 3 and 2 win over Jack Cameron, Toronto, in 1932.

SECOND ROUND
Some second round Ancaster golf results follow:

C. Ross Somerville, London, defeated G. Cumming, Galt, 7 and 6.

Dan Kennedy, Winnipeg, defeated Jack Ahern, Buffalo, 6 and 5.

R. L. Proctor, Edmonton, defeated Phil Farley, Cedar Brook, Toronto, 1 up.

Joe Thompson, Burlington, defeated Hugh Jacques, Whitlock, Montreal, 1 up.

Fred Hoblitzel, Lambton, Toronto, defeated Hank Corrigan, Chaudiers, Ontario, on the twenty-first.

Howard Jones Chedoke, Hamilton, defeated A. W. Matthews, Edmonton, 1 up.

Bobby Reith, Winnipeg, defeated Jack Cameron, Lookout Point, 3 and 2.

J. Mountfield, Edmonton, defeated (Turn to Page 12, Col. 4)

MINE CONTROL IS CHALLENGED

Appeal Justices Reserve Decision on Claim of Holder in Old Pioneer-Gold Co.

Argument in the latest of a long series of litigation involving part-ownership of the Pioneer Gold Mines of British Columbia, which has been on since last Friday, came to a close at noon to-day with the four sitting justices of the Court of Appeal reserving their judgment.

In this action Vernon Lloyd-Owen, owner of 10,580 shares of the old Pioneer Gold Mines Limited, which was liquidated and taken over by the present company in 1925, asked the court for an order that the liquidator of the old company, John E. S. Satter, take action in the name of the old company for the profit that has accrued on the 1925 deal and for a declaration that 800,000 shares of Pioneer Gold Mines of British Columbia and all dividends thereon received by members of the Wallbridge Syndicate go to the shareholders of the original company.

Mr. Lloyd-Owen claimed that it has been impossible for the shareholders of the old Pioneer company to get control of their rights, as 51 per cent of the issued capital of the old company and thus control was in the hands of the Wallbridge Syndicate. Mr. Justice Murphy dismissed Mr. Lloyd-Owen's application when it came up in the Supreme Court. J. A. MacInnes has been carrying on the argument here for Mr. Lloyd-Owen. Against him has been J. W. de B. Parris, K.C. Named as defendants in the case are Alfred E. Bull, J. Duff, R. B. Boucher, F. J. J. Blum, Helen A. Wallbridge and D. S. Wallbridge, executors of the estate of Adam H. Wallbridge.

Vandalism At Normal School

Saanich Police Investigating Damage to Beautiful Grounds

Saanich police were this morning investigating vandalism at the Normal School, where for several days the school has been visited at night by boys who have tramped on flower beds and torn up shrubs.

This morning it was found that three or four beds had been completely ruined, with geraniums and petunias completely uprooted.

In addition young cedar trees three feet in height and several other shrubs have been torn up.

The Normal School grounds contain several thousand dollars' worth of plants, provided by the provincial government, and are one of the beauty spots of the city.

Judging from the footprints, school officials judge the depredations have been made by a gang of three or four young boys.

The school has always suffered a certain amount of damage to its grounds from bulbs being torn up and flowers stolen, as well as from boys jumping across flower beds and mistaking their footing. In the past school officials have taken no action and managed to repair the damage with a certain amount of trouble. On this morning, however, the damage was sufficiently serious to ask police help.

BEAVER CHOIR ENTERTAINED

Hudson's Bay Co. Group, Victors at Vancouver Festival, Guests at Dinner

In honor of their recent success in the Vancouver Musical Festival, members of the Beaver Club Choir of the Hudson's Bay Company were yesterday evening entertained at dinner as the personal guests of A. J. Watson, local manager of the company.

Cyril C. Warren, L.R.S.M., A.T.C.M., was re-elected conductor of the choir at the annual meeting of the club immediately following the banquet. Mr. Warren led the choir to the provincial championship in the commercial choir class at Vancouver, and also in the same class at the Victoria Musical Festival last year.

J. Watson was re-elected president by acclamation, and Mr. Watson accepted the position of honorary president. Miss L. Butterfield was named secretary-treasurer, and George MacAdams publicity chairman. The music committee for the year is as follows: J. Walsh, Nelson Hicks, Miss Isabelle Crawford, Miss W. Horvick and M. Dunsford. Miss P. Siburn was appointed librarian.

The choir received warm congratulations from Mr. Watson on its success on its promotion of interest in music in the city. Mr. Warren thanked Mr. Watson for his kindness and interest.

A concert will be given by the club in the early fall. It was decided that plans were discussed following the election of officers.

An entertainment programme concluded the evening. Mr. Warren conducted the choir in the two numbers which it sang at the Vancouver festival. L. J. Smith officiated as master-of-ceremonies. The artists included: Miss Crawford, Miss Grace Allen, Mr. Walsh, Mr. MacAdams and Percy Mickleburgh.

Mr. Waller was born in Victoria fifty-seven years ago, his father being the late Henry Waller, who for many years conducted a confectionery business.

He is survived by his widow, at the family residence, two sons, Harvill, residing at Austin Avenue, and Maurice, a student, R. J. Winter, 2572 Douglas Street, and another brother, Charles, lost his life in the Princess Sophia disaster.

MUSIC TEACHERS HOLD MEETING

A general meeting of Victoria branch of the B.C. Music Teachers' Federation was held this morning in the Y.W.C.A. with one of the best attendances of the year.

Owing to the absence of the president, Mrs. J. H. Smith, the meeting was held under the chairmanship of Vice-president Mrs. Marion McGovern.

Correspondence from Vancouver announced that the federation's annual meeting will be held July 10, Regina, Sask., president, and Miss Nora Sherwood, secretary, were chosen as delegates to represent the local branch at this meeting.

Several helpful hints for increasing the membership were also gleaned from a letter from Roy Robertson and will be adopted by the association when it reopens on September 1.

The treasurer's report revealed a satisfactory balance. The association will again hold its annual picnic at Elk Lake on July 9 or 10, but exact date will be announced later. It is hoped Egerlon Lowe of the Trinity College of Music will give an address.

A letter will be sent from the association to Sir Ernest MacMillan of the Toronto Conservatory, congratulating him on the honor conferred on him. Best wishes and bon voyage were expressed by members to Miss Ogier, who is leaving Victoria for England for an indefinite period.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

Hollywood, June 19.—To the Editor of The Times: That's great news about these two South American nations that have been fighting for three years, Bolivia and Paraguay. According to the terms of peace neither side has to take any of the land that they were fighting over. Bolivia thought for awhile there she was going to have to take it. It goes back to the Indians. Hurrah for Judge Landis. The old judge made a mighty wise decision, especially in not allowing them to exploit this boy just for publicity alone. The young blades might not know it but in us fellows' young days this same Judge Landis hung a twenty-one million dollar fine on the Standard Oil Company. Yours,

CITY RID OF BAWDY HOUSES

Police Order Drives Occupants Out Following Court Comments

Following the criticism of Mr. Justice McPhillips in the Court of Appeal on the licensing of reputed bawdy houses in Victoria, Chief of Police Healey announced this morning the operation of these premises had been stopped.

Coinciding with the announcement the chief notified the city council of the reputation which these places had gained and listed them for the council's information in order that powers under the Municipal Act might be exerted and the licenses cancelled.

The criticism of the justice was followed by a hearing in the Appeal Court last week when he described as unbelievable the condition which existed in Victoria. He thought it should be "repressed up."

Previously these premises have been licensed as rooming houses, a fact which permitted police to enter them at any time. Had they not been licensed as such police would have been powerless to enter them.

The premises listed in the chief's letter to the council were: The Occidental Hotel, 1318 Wharf Street; Pannaka Hotel, 536 1/2 Johnson Street, and the Strand Hotel, 550 Johnson Street.

Seek Ruling On Import Control

Ottawa's Decision on Feature of Marketing Schemes Awaited Here

British Columbia is now awaiting decision by the Dominion Government as to whether marketing boards within this province shall have the right to regulate marketing of imported products under the Natural Products Marketing Act, Hon. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture, said to-day.

Two marketing schemes, one for beef cattle and one for sheep, which have been given provincial approval are now being reviewed by the Dominion authorities.

Both schemes proposed that the marketing boards be given jurisdiction over products coming into B.C. from outside points. This is an essential feature of the cattle scheme, particularly because B.C. beef is subject to strong competition from Alberta.

Dr. MacDonald some months ago drew attention to the fact that in the regulation of certain products, this form of control was imperative if the schemes were to succeed since local products could not survive against unregulated competition from other provinces.

The two schemes now before Ottawa contain the first concrete proposal of this kind and the federal assent is also expected to come over such procedure is therefore awaited with interest here.

LEADERS FOR Y.M.C.A. CAMP

Lynn Patrick and Red Martin Will Attend Annual Fair at Glinz Lake

One leader to every eight or nine boys is the principle on which the Y.M.C.A. annual camp will be run this year. For its leaders the "Y" is choosing some of its most distinguished former members, Vivian Shoemaker, secretary of the boys' department and camp supervisor, announced this morning.

Lynn Patrick and Red Martin, Blue Ribbons basketball star, have already stated their willingness to attend the camp. Joe Roberts of the University of British Columbia, former "Y" track star, is also expected to come over from Britannia Beach for the occasion. Other names mentioned by Mr. Shoemaker include Harvey Dobson and Leslie Clough.

Indications are that this year's camp, which opens for two weeks on July 8, will be one of the best attended in the history of the "Y." Scores of inquiries have been received, and many boys have already signed up to attend. The Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs are both sponsoring about a dozen boys each.

This year's camp will be held at a new site, Glinz Lake, near Sooke, and about twenty miles from Victoria. The lake provides excellent bathing and diving facilities and is in the middle of a piece of land a mile long by half a mile wide, including every sort of ground from open grass to mountainous slopes.

Mrs. H. Norris will be in charge of the cooking, and good food is assured for the campers, in addition to the benefits of open air, healthy exercise of every description and regular hours.

The camp is open to all boys between the ages of twelve and seventeen, and the fees this year are lower than those in force previously.

He was survived by his widow at home, two sons, Ernest, in Winnipeg, and Herbert in Trail; two daughters, Mrs. L. W. Ashton, Moose Jaw, and Mrs. Cook in England, and eight grandchildren.

OPENS APPEAL FOR PIRILLO

C. L. McAlpine, counsel for Jimmy Pirillo, sentenced in Vancouver to two years on white slavery charges, opened his appeal here at noon to-day by reviewing evidence to explain to the justices of the Court of Appeal the "ticket system" in force in Vancouver whereby profits are split fifty-fifty between the girls and the operators of the house.

Mr. McAlpine reviewed the evidence of a nineteen-year-old Borneo girl, who had been visiting Victoria and on the boat on the way back to Vancouver made the acquaintance of two men which culminated in her becoming a prostitute in Vancouver and Nelson. Pirillo, it was alleged, was one of the collectors of profits from this girl under the "ticket system."

There was no case against Pirillo, Mr. McAlpine argued, because the prosecution had brought no corroborative of the girl's story against him in the Assize Court.

The appeal is continuing, with E. A. Dickie replying for the prosecution.

TOLLS CUT ON SHORT TRIPS

Tolls over the Cariboo Highway for short-trippers are reduced under new regulations approved by the provincial government, Hon. P. M. MacPherson, Minister of Public Works, announced this morning.

The reduction is effected by permitting motorists who pay a toll going up the road to return free before midnight of the following day. This will allow week-end trips to be made over the road for payment of one toll instead of two.

Other changes in the regulations restrict free pass to residents between Yale and Lytton and require those claiming exemption from toll by reason of having free miners' licenses to produce relief card as well.

Twelve-member Radio Board Urged

Three Federal and Nine Provincial Directors Suggested By G. Spry, Canadian Radio League Head,
Addressing Canadian-
U.S. Conference at Canton, N.Y.

Mr. Spry said all political parties should be given use of the national network without charge at various times during the year and that during election campaigns, national, provincial or local, they should be offered similar free time, having the option to buy additional time if they might wish it.

Mr. Spry said the Canadian Radio League had failed
for several reasons. "By its constitution," he said, "it was doomed to failure as an impartial arbiter above
suspect."

The Radio League president claimed the commission had failed
for several reasons. "By its constitution," he said, "it was doomed to
failure as an impartial arbiter above
suspect."

It provided no satisfactory alternative to the privately operated United States networks, he said.

Dr. Alfred M. Goldsmith, New York consulting engineer, said:
"It would perhaps be too much to say
Canadian-American friendship radio matters has always run smooth, but the spirit of co-operation on both sides which has been exemplified is a hopeful symptom."

"It is not easy to determine the proper basis for division of available radio facilities between us," he added.
"Adjustments of divisions of frequency bands may be based on relative populations, relative areas or inherent radio needs of both countries."

"Under present cordial relationships Canadian-American radio problems seem little more than matters for thoughtful analysis and calmly equitable solution. Probably there do not exist on this score-torn ball of earth two more friendly nations."

Following protracted discussion of tariff discrimination yesterday, the subject was to be taken up again today in private session.

Speaking almost on the eve of negotiations in Washington for a readjustment of Canadian - U.S.
tariffs, the academicians of
both countries united in expressing a
hope the duties should be lowered.

Mr. Spry proposed a four-point
financial set-up for the commission. It would:

1. Receive all revenue from receiving
set license fees;

2. Be provided by loan or guarantee with capital, spread over several years, for erection of a series of 50,000-watt
stations with subsidiaries;

3. Obtain a "more favorable" contract with wire companies to insure at least eight hours' service over an eastern and western network and all network advertising would be negotiated through private companies and the commission; "the revenue accru-ing to the commission from the lease of wires," more rigorous means of collecting license fees would be instituted and, after two or three years, the license revenues should fall to be adequate for both operation and capital expenditure, "then the question of either an increased license fee or government subsidy should be raised.

subject was to be taken up again today in private session.

Speaking almost on the eve of negotiations in Washington for a readjustment of Canadian - U.S.
tariffs, the academicians of
both countries united in expressing a
hope the duties should be lowered.

Mr. Spry proposed a four-point
financial set-up for the commission. It would:

1. Receive all revenue from receiving
set license fees

Trend On Wall Street Steady With Heavy Tone At the Close

Associated Press
New York, June 18.—The stock market divided itself into sharply contrasting groups to-day with utilities and a few miscellaneous shares pointing upward, while metals and sugar were conspicuous on the offside. Standard Industrials and rails held a middle-of-the-road course until the final hour when they yielded to pressure. The closing tone was heavy. Sales aggregated 1,600,000 shares.

The majority of stocks were extremely sensitive to group movements throughout the day. After churning about narrowly throughout the forenoon, the entire list was steadied by a brisk rally in utilities. Bit sellers began to make greater concessions later and something of a full-fledged selling movement broke out just before the close. At one time the ticker fell behind two minutes. Most all commodities were lower throughout the day and bonds had an irregular appearance.

Among shares ending the session major fractions to more than a point lower were Bethlehem Steel, DuPont, Chrysler, American Tobacco, Allied Chemical, American Can, Air Reduction, Columbian Carbon, Westinghouse, American Telephone, American Smelting, Corro de Pasco, Anaconda, U.S. Smelting, Santa Fe, Standard Pacific, American Sugar and American Crystal Sugar.

In the utility division, best resistance was shown by Public Service of New Jersey, North American and American Water Works, most of which ended around a point higher. Some oil stocks were higher.

BRALORNE AT TORONTO FIRM

Canadian Press
Toronto, June 18.—Buying appeared to be as good as the selling, but there were no spectacular features in to-day's Toronto mining market. Bralorne got back above the $5 mark on fair volume and Tack Hughes displayed moderate strength. Base metals were mainly steady. Silvers were soft. Bralorne at 5.05 gained 30c. Dome, Lake Shore and Wright Hargreaves held to the up side. Tack Hughes held around 4.07 for a gain of a few cents. Nearly all the active secondary gold issues remained steady. Buffalo-Akerite closed with gains of 2c to 3c each.

Silver finished the day a little above their morning lows with action showing mainly in Eldorado and Bear. Eldorado lost about a gain of a few cents and two Noranda was firm. Oils were slow.

BONDS STEADY AT NEW YORK

Associated Press
New York, June 18.—While bond market support was generally adequate to maintain values to-day, there were not many indications of eager buying.

A few second grade issues continued to have active followings whose buying resulted in fair-sized gains. American and Foreign Power 5s moved up 1 1/2 points to 66, while International Telephone 5s pushed up 1 point to 70 1/2, a new high for the year.

Is the American Husband Down-trodden? Finds He Should Be Able to Bear Up!

IN THE AMERICAN HUSBAND oppressed? Is he a poor, down-trodden, hen-pecked creature whose wife tramples upon his prostrate form? A distinguished foreign critic, who has been visiting our shores for the purpose of studying this humble worm of the dust in his native habitat, thinks this is the case, and draws a most pathetic picture of the sufferings of the American husband. But we, who know him better, feel that there is no call for this sympathetic outpouring and no need to get out the tear jug.

For while it is true that the American husband is the kindest, the most generous and indulgent husband in the world, it is likewise true that no other husband in the world demands so much of his wife as he does. And this is the point that foreigners miss.

They see only that the American wife gets abroad in the summer while her husband stays at home and works and that she decides what color the drawing-room shall be done over in and where the children shall go to school, and so she decides that the American man is an easy mark who lets some woman sell him a matrimonial gold brick and then bat him into subjection with it. He forgets that the American man is a shrewd trader by nature and training, who seldom gets the worst end of the bargain, and that if he gives much in matrimony he expects to get it back with compound interest.

To begin with, the American man is the only man among civilized peoples who makes women amuse, entertain and fascinate him. His attitude is that of the Grand Visier who throws the handkerchief. In Europe it is the men who make the social running, and who exert themselves to divert women and please them.

In America it is the women who have to work like coal-heavers in their effort to amuse men who seldom even make an effort to respond to the attentions that their girl friends shower upon them. Go where you will and you will see women talking their heads off to men who barely grunt by way of reply. Everywhere it is the women who are wearing a bright, vivacious expression, while the men are looking bored and sulky.

Everywhere it is the women who are trying to please the men, not the men the women. The Oriental slaves who dance before their lords and masters are the prototypes of the modern American woman who has to go daily through her little bag of tricks to please some man who sits on the back of his neck and says, in effect, "show me."

And this state of affairs continues after marriage. If there is any conversation in the home, with most men out of a bright and happy line. If there is any brightness and cheer, she must learn how to gumshoe around his pet prejudices and respect his keep-off-the-grass signs. If they have an interesting circle of friends, she must gather them in. If they go to places of amusement, she must hunt up the good picture, the peppy play, the kind of music he likes.

She must remember birthdays and anniversaries and write to his mother and send a present to his sister's new baby and indite the proper notes of thanks for courtesies and send the telegrams of obligation to acquaintances and pick out the wedding gifts and, alone and unaided, keep the family and social machines oiled up and running smoothly.

Husband supplies the money to support the home. When he has done that, he washes his hands of the job and turns over the reins to his wife. He lets her do it, and if the American home the wife seems to be the boss and the head of the house, it is not because she has deliberately usurped her husband's place, but because he has ducked his responsibilities. He isn't oppressed. He is a quitter.

He doesn't want to be bothered with having to study his children and getting acquainted with them, and trying to make wise decisions about their bringing up, so he turns the rearing of them entirely over to their mother. He doesn't want to make the effort to observe the social amenities, so he lets wife lay out his dinner clothes and lead him where she will. Why, half the men have no friends of their own out of business circles, and would have no social status except for their wives. It is the wife who must make influential friends for her husband, who must open the right doors to him. Abroad the wife is the tail of her husband's kite. Here the husband expects her to be the social airplane and carry him along with her as a passenger.

More than that, the American husband demands that his wife shall be a whole harem of women condensed into one female form. He expects her to be Ann in the kitchen and Queen Anne in the parlor. He expects her to remain young and beautiful, and slim and flapperish, no matter how old she gets. He expects her to be able to cook with one hand and play the piano with the other. He expects her to be a penny-pincher, yet look like a fashion plate. He expects her to stay at home and take care of the children, yet belong to clubs and keep up with the times. And, above all, he expects her always to be ready to give him the glad hand and to appreciate properly the blessing that Heaven bestowed upon her when she got him for a husband.

And, if that's oppression, it is a jolly good snap.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1935

Mingled good and evil are read in the horoscope for to-day by astrologers. Adversity appears to dominate strongly in the morning hours there should be a strong impulse toward whatever is constructive. Builders should make the most of the first part of this day.

The rule appears to favor military matters. He expects her to be a penny-pincher, yet look like a fashion plate. He expects her to stay at home and take care of the children, yet belong to clubs and keep up with the times. And, above all, he expects her always to be ready to give him the glad hand and to appreciate properly the blessing that Heaven bestowed upon her when she got him for a husband.

Women are unlucky while this configuration prevails. He expects her to be a penny-pincher, yet look like a fashion plate. He expects her to stay at home and take care of the children, yet belong to clubs and keep up with the times. And, above all, he expects her always to be ready to give him the glad hand and to appreciate properly the blessing that Heaven bestowed upon her when she got him for a husband.

This is an unfavorable time for girls who seek positions or any sort of preferment. Business and professional paths will be hard to enter at this time although there is a good general outlook for 1935 college graduates.

Initiation of any big project should be delayed, because while there is a sign of promise for starting, hindrances may be expected to-day.

Temperament to speculate should be resisted. They will do well to keep in the background in public matters and fix their attention upon home and family matters.

Uncle Wiggily In a Net

By HOWARD B. GARIS

For a long time the Fox and the Bob Cat had tried to catch Uncle Wiggily. But each time they thought they had him the rabbit would slip away. So, up to this time, the Fox and Bob Cat had never really caught the bunny.

But that didn't stop them from trying each time they met the chance. They sneaked after him in the woods and lay in wait for him in the fields. Sometimes Uncle Wiggily came very near to being caught.

One day the Fox, in great excitement, ran over to the den where the Bob Cat lived in a hole of the rocks and the Fox said:

"I know a new way to catch Uncle Wiggily!"

"You mean a new way to TRY to catch him?" asked the Bob Cat. "You'll get him this time. I just passed his bungalow. He's out back of it with a net trying to catch some fish. Now we can sneak up on him, tangle him up in his own net, carry him into the woods and there we'll have him."

Bob Cat's QUESTION

"What do you mean about Uncle Wiggily fishing with a net in his bungalow?" asked the Bob Cat. "There aren't any fish so close to the bungalow."

"Well, you come and see!" invited the Fox.

So the Fox and Bob Cat went to the bungalow. They saw Uncle Wiggily sitting on the porch, fishing with a net. The Fox and Bob Cat sneaked up on him and tangle him up in his own net. They carried him into the woods and there they had him.

Uncle Wiggily was surprised when he found himself tangle up in a net. He tried to get out, but he couldn't. He was so tangle up in the net that he couldn't move. He was so tangle up in the net that he couldn't move. He was so tangle up in the net that he couldn't move.

HOUSE DAMAGED BY LIGHTNING

Canadian Press

Salmon Arm, B.C. June 19.—The kitchen floor of a house here was torn up and the chimney was damaged by lightning that accompanied the second severe storm experienced in this district recently.

Mrs. Kinney, occupant of the house, was enveloped with a blue flame and could smell burning sulphur when the lightning struck. She is suffering from shock.

The first of the two recent storms was accompanied by hail and many windows were shivered.
